Discover your cruise

From Mykonos to Ephesus: a seven-night Aegean cruise aboard M/Y Elysium with Delos, Samos, Kusadasi, Patmos, Paros and Sifnos.

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1 Lavrion – embarkation

Embark at Lavrion between 14:30 and 15:30 with a welcome drink. Dinner on board as the yacht sails to Delos; overnight at anchor.

DAY 2 Delos – Mykonos

Morning at Delos, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the mythical birthplace of Apollo. Midday sail to Mykonos for lunch on board and a free afternoon and evening in Chora, Little Venice and by the windmills. Late-evening departure for Samos; overnight at sea.

DAY 3 Samos

Wake up in green Samos, home of Pythagoras and the astronomer Aristarchus. Explore its villages and sights on the guided island tour or at your own pace. Late-afternoon sail to Kusadasi.

DAY 4 Kusadasi – Ephesus (Turkey)

Morning arrival in Kusadasi with its beaches and lively bazaar. Explore on your own or join the guided excursion to Ephesus, one of the best-preserved ancient cities in the world. Back on board, sail in the late afternoon to nearby Patmos, where you can go ashore in the evening; overnight in port.

DAY 5 Patmos

Explore Patmos or join the optional excursion to the Monastery of St John and the Cave of the Apocalypse. Lunch on board, then time in Skala, the lively port town. Overnight in port, with an early-morning departure for Paros.

DAY 6 Paros

Morning swim in a secluded bay, then arrive in Paros for its villages, beaches and boutiques. Lunch on board and an evening enjoying the island nightlife. Overnight in port.

DAY 7 Sifnos

Hike the Sifnos Trails, join the optional tour to Kastro and the Church of the Seven Martyrs, or stroll through Apollonia. Farewell cocktail and dinner on board, then sail back towards Athens.

DAY 8 Lavrion – disembarkation

Breakfast on board and disembarkation at Lavrion by 10:00.
