Casablanca [ship]

Day 1 • KRK

Arrive in Krk port, where embarkation begins at 2 pm. Settle in your cabin, before attending a Welcome reception followed by dinner this evening.

Meals on board: Dinner

Optional: Arrival in Zagreb, include guide tour and transfer with modern coach to Krk (included in rate)

Day 2 • KRK -RAB - ZADAR

Sail to Rab and arrive in the early morning. Rab is a double-faced island: a desert-like stretch of rock to the east and a landscape of vegetation, forests and maqui, to the west. With its beaches, its bays, its scented and green ambience, Rab is here for rest and pleasure. Its beauty and various tourist infrastructures make it one of the most visited islands in the Adriatic. Free walk through the streets of the city.

Around noon, continue navigation to Zadar.

Arrival in Zadar and discovery of the old town with the National Square, St. Anastasia Church Byzantine cathedral rebuilt in Romanesque style in the early thirteenth if ECLE and the St. Donat church, real Carolingian style monument constructed shaped rotunda. Parade along the fortifications built in the sixteenth century to face the Ottoman threat.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 3 • ZADAR - NP PLITVICE - ŠIBENIK

Daily trip with coach to the Plitvice Lakes National Park with lunch on site. Located inland about a 2-hour drive from Zadar, this vast UNESCO World Heritage Park encompasses a succession of 16 lakes that are unique in their configuration. Indeed, each lake flows into the next lake with one or more waterfalls: a total of 92 cascades over a height difference of 133 m. The clarity of the water is incredible, and swimming is prohibited to protect this beautiful site. Overnight in Šibenik.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 4 • ŠIBENIK - TROGIR

In the morning, free walk in the small town of Sibenik.

Naturally protected by its large bay and dominated by a fortress, Sibenik is home to a beautiful old town, full of churches, monasteries and palaces. The majestic Saint-Jacques Cathedral, considered as the first Renaissance-style building built outside Italy, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

We are continuing sail to Trogir, where the ship arrives in the afternoon.

Guided tour of Trogir. Located 25 km north of Split, the city has retained its medieval character making it one of the most interesting cities of the Adriatic coast. Visit of the Saint-Laurent cathedral built in the 13th century. Through the alleys, external views of the various palaces and monuments, including the Benedictine Monastery of St. Nicholas.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 5 • TROGIR - SPLIT - MAKARSKA

The M / Y Casablanca leaves the port of Trogir early in the morning towards Split. Guided tour of Split. It was in 295 that the Emperor Diocletian had his palace built in a large bay not far from Salone. Thus was born the city of Split. At the end of the seventh century, John of Ravenna, archbishop of Split, transformed the mausoleum of Diocletian into a cathedral. It was in Split that the first Croatian king Tomislav summoned the assembly of bishops and constituted the autonomy of the city. After a long Venetian domination and the Napoleonic episode, the town was a part of the Habsburg Empire before integrating the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes in 1918.

In the late afternoon, berthing in the port of Makarska, capital of the fabulous resort of the same name.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 6 • MAKARSKA - PLOČE - MOSTAR - KORČULA

Early morning, sail to Ploce and departure by bus for an excursion to Mostar. Built by the Turks more than 500 years ago, it is the symbol of the city. The Old Bridge district of the Old Town of Mostar is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk through the streets, visit the Turkish house and the mosque.

Back on board, then lovely sailing through the islands of the Dalmatian coast to Korcula. This fishbone-shaped town is one of the essential fortified sites in the former Republic of Ragusa (Dubrovnik). According to legend, it was founded in the twelfth century BC by the Trojan hero Antenor. Korcula, known for being the native island of Marco Polo, owes its reputation to its stonecutters who made here the most beautiful and ambitious monument with St. Mark's Cathedral which contains a beautiful painting of Tintoretto. Free walk through the streets of the city.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and C dinner

Day 7 • KORČULA - DUBROVNIK

In the morning, sail to Dubrovnik.

Surrounded by high ramparts overlooking the Adriatic, Dubrovnik, the ancient Ragusa, is considered one of the jewels of World Heritage. Founded by the Greeks of Epidaurus, it was populated by Slavic tribes from the seventh century, under the protection of Byzantium. In the twelfth century, the city has a political organization headed by an elected Rector and two councils. Gradually, it will emerge from the domination of Venice and proclaim its Republic in 1358. For more than three centuries, the Republic of Dubrovnik will reign over the trade of the Adriatic. The noble families and merchants build magnificent palaces; the city is enriched with churches and monasteries. In the seventeenth century, the city is destroyed by an earthquake of rare violence. Rebuilt in pure Baroque style, now offers many palaces, squares, churches and patrician houses that contribute to its brilliance. Guided tour of the old town passing by the Franciscan convent and its Romanesque cloister, include the Rector's Palace, once the seat of the Republic of Dubrovnik. You will also see the baroque cathedral housing a polyptych of Titian, as well as reliquaries in gold and silver.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 8 • DUBROVNIK - CAVTAT

Free time in the morning for an individual discovery of Dubrovnik. Departure in the afternoon towards Cavtat.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 9 • CAVTAT - KOTOR - CETINJE - CAVTAT

Morning departure with a coach to Kotor. Guided tour of the city and St. Tryphon Cathedral. The excursion continues with the visit of Cetinje: Cetinje, perched at an altitude of 672 m, is the former capital of Montenegro. The country gained its independence as early as the 14th century. Visit of Prince Nikola's palace. One can also admire the monastery of St. Peter's neo-Byzantine style. Return to Kotor by taking the famous winding road which offers an exceptional panorama over the entire fjord. On the way, stop in the village Njegusi for a tasting of local products including the famous smoked ham. Back on board in Cavtat.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner
