Day 2 • CAVTAT - KOTOR - CETINJE - DUBROVNIK

Morning departure with a coach to Kotor. Guided tour of the city and St. Tryphon Cathedral. The excursion continues with the visit of Cetinje: Cetinje, perched at an altitude of 672 m, is the former capital of Montenegro. The country gained its independence as early as the 14th century. Visit of Prince Nikola's palace. One can also admire the monastery of St. Peter's neo-Byzantine style. Return to Kotor by taking the famous winding road which offers an exceptional panorama over the entire fjord. On the way, stop in the village Njegusi for a tasting of local products including the famous smoked ham. Back onboard in Dubrovnik.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 3 • DUBROVNIK

Surrounded by high ramparts overlooking the Adriatic, Dubrovnik, the ancient Ragusa, is considered one of the jewels of World Heritage. Founded by the Greeks of Epidaurus, it was populated by Slavic tribes from the seventh century, under the protection of Byzantium. In the twelfth century, the city has a political organization headed by an elected Rector and two councils. Gradually, it will emerge from the domination of Venice and proclaim its Republic in 1358. For more than three centuries, the Republic of Dubrovnik will reign over the trade of the Adriatic. The noble families and merchants build magnificent palaces; the city is enriched with churches and monasteries. In the seventeenth century, the city is destroyed by an earthquake of rare violence. Rebuilt in pure Baroque style, now offers many palaces, squares, churches and patrician houses that contribute to its brilliance. Guided tour of the old town passing by the Franciscan convent and its Romanesque cloister, include the Rector's Palace, once the seat of the Republic of Dubrovnik. You will also see the baroque cathedral housing a polyptych of Titian, as well as reliquaries in gold and silver.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 4 • KORČULA

This fishbone-shaped town is one of the essential fortified sites in the former Republic of Ragusa (Dubrovnik). According to legend, it was founded in the twelfth century BC by the Trojan hero Antenor. Korčula, known for being the native island of Marco Polo, owes its reputation to its stonecutters who made here the most beautiful and ambitious monument with St. Mark's Cathedral which contains a beautiful painting of Tintoretto. Free walk through the streets of the city.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 5 • PLOČE - MOSTAR - MAKARSKA

Cruise towards to Ploče and take the coach for an excursion to Mostar. Built by the Turks more than 500 years ago, it is the symbol of the city. The Old Bridge district of the Old Town of Mostar is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk through the streets, visit the Turkish house and the mosque.

Return on board the M / Y Casablanca and departure towards the seaside resort of Makarska.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 6 • MAKARSKA- SPLIT - TROGIR

We start our day with morning departure towards along the beautiful Adriatic coast to Split. Guided tour of Split. It was in 295 that the Emperor Diocletian had his palace built in a large bay not far from Salone. Thus was born the city of Split. At the end of the seventh century, John of Ravenna, archbishop of Split, transformed the mausoleum of Diocletian into a cathedral. It was in Split that the first Croatian king Tomislav summoned the assembly of bishops and constituted the autonomy of the city. After a long Venetian domination and the Napoleonic episode, the city was attached to the Habsburg Empire before integrating the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes in 1918. Late departure from Split to Trogir, we come in the evening. Free time. Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 7 • TROGIR - ŠIBENIK

In the morning, free walk in the small town of Trogir. Located 25 km north of Split, the city has retained its medieval character making it one of the most interesting cities of the Adriatic coast. Visit of the Saint-Laurent cathedral built in the 13th century. Through the alleys, external views of the various palaces and monuments, including the Benedictine Monastery of St. Nicholas. Naturally protected by its large bay and dominated by a fortress, Šibenik is home to a beautiful old town, full of churches, monasteries and palaces. The majestic Saint-Jacques Cathedral, considered as the first Renaissance-style building built outside Italy, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We are continuing sail to Trogir, where the ship arrives in the afternoon. Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 8 • ŠIBENIK - NP PLITVICE - ZADAR

Daily trip with coach to the Plitvice Lakes National Park with lunch on site. Located inland about a 2-hour drive from Zadar, this vast UNESCO World Heritage Park encompasses a succession of 16 lakes that are unique in their configuration. Indeed, each lake flows into the next lake with one or more waterfalls: a total of 92 cascades over a height difference of 133 m. The clarity of the water is incredible, and swimming is prohibited to protect this beautiful site. Arrival in Zadar and discovery of the old town with the National Square, St. Anastasia Church Byzantine cathedral rebuilt in Romanesque style in the early thirteenth if ECLE and the St. Donat church, real Carolingian style monument constructed shaped rotunda. Parade along the fortifications built in the sixteenth century to face the Ottoman threat. Overnight in Zadar. Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 9 • ZADAR -RAB - KRK

Sail to Rab and arrive in the early morning. Rab is a double-faced island: a desert-like stretch of rock to the east and a landscape of vegetation, forests and maqui, to the west. With its beaches, its bays, its scented and green ambience, Rab is here for rest and pleasure. Its beauty and various tourist infrastructures make it one of the most visited islands in the Adriatic.
