Day 2 • SPLIT - VIS

Departing early, you'll set sail towards Vis Island. Along the way, we will stop for a swim near the Pakleni Islands, a breathtaking archipelago near the island of Hvar. With its hidden coves and pristine beaches, the Pakleni Islands are a paradise for boaters. Lunch will be served on board as we continue our journey towards Vis, arriving in the early afternoon.

Once a secluded military enclave, Vis has opened its doors to the public in the past 25 years, revealing a treasure trove of spectacular scenery, renowned wines, and exquisite Dalmatian cuisine. Delve into the island's rich history and natural splendor at your own pace. Here you have the opportunity to join a trip to the island of Biševo** home to the mesmerizing Blue Cave. As sunlight permeates through the submerged crevices, casting an ethereal glow upon the limestone walls, the azure hues of the Blue Cave beckon you to behold its natural wonder. Spend the night in Vis, embracing its tranquil charm.

Meals on board: Breakfast and lunch

**optional excursion to the island of Biševo

Day 3 • VIS - KORČULA

Departing for the Island of Korčula with a pause for a picturesque swim and lunch in a secluded cove near Korčula before arriving in the afternoon. The town is known for its rich history and culture, including the captivating Moreska sword dance. Navigate the timeless charm of Korčula Town on a captivating walking tour.* Begin at the historic Land Gate, then wander through narrow alleyways lined with Renaissance buildings and artisan shops. Admire the majestic Cathedral of St. Mark and stroll along the waterfront promenade, soaking in panoramic views of the Adriatic Sea. Legend has it that Korčula is the birthplace of the famed explorer Marco Polo, adding an extra layer of intrigue to its allure. You are also invited to join a special experience that includes a Gin and Honey tasting ** in a private household near Korčula. Overnight in Korčula.
