Lunch on board and set sail for Hvar on the island of Hvar, a charming seaside town with 8 centuries of architecture, and a favorite holiday destination for international celebrities. During a walking tour, visit many historical sites, such as St Stephen's Square and Cathedral, the Arsenal with the theatre built on its first floor, the first municipal theatre in Europe. Above the town is the impressive fortress Fortica offering magnificent views over the bay and Pakleni islands. Your evening is free to explore more and dine on your own in one of the many restaurants.

Continue sailing through lunch, arriving this afternoon in Lastovo, an island known for its Venetian architecture from the 15th and 16th centuries. to Vis, once a strategic naval Yugoslav base and restricted to the public.

Due to this isolation, Vis has a special charm - "the Mediterranean as it once was" making it interesting to visit. Since the independence of Croatia, the island began opening slowly to the outside world. Some of Europe's largest and greatest naval battles had happened in the waters of Vis. The island of Vis keeps many historical secrets, you can explore Vis on your own and we recommend going on one of the military tours.
